16.2.2 Student's union

The university continues to formally recognize an independent students' union, which maintains the same operational structure as the previous year. This union plays a vital role in our governance by providing elected student representation, offering comprehensive support services for student welfare, and organizing a diverse range of social activities.