MIU Regulations

MIU Regulations

This is a student guide for MIU students that may be beneficial to you during your study years, so please read carefully.

Student Responsibility

- Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the information presented in this booklet.
- Please refer to MIU Student Code of Conduct on the website.
- Students MUST check their e-mail regularly and student portal because it is the OFFICIAL way of communication between the university and its students.

University ID:

The university identification card is an important document that ensures both students' rights and the safety and security of the university.

Therefore students should:

- Safeguard the ID and ensure that it is not used by anyone but the ID owner.
- Make sure to keep the ID with them while on campus and present it whenever asked to without any objection.
- If a student loses the ID, he/she will pay reissuing fee to receive a new one.

Credit Hours

- Courses are calculated in credit hours, i.e. points that each student gains upon taking a specific course. Each course carries a certain number of credits (points) that are awarded after successful completion of that course. You are awarded a Grade Point Average (GPA) at the end of every semester and a Cumulative Grade Point (CUM GPA) for the total of all semesters.

Class Standing

- Class standing i.e. whether you are a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, does not depend on the year of joining the university but on the number of credit hours you have completed

Credit hours	Class Standing
1<33	Freshman
33<66	Sophomore
66<99	Junior
99& above	Senior (For Faculties of Al-Alsun, Business Administration, Computer Science and Mass Communication)
99<135	Senior First year (Engineering & Pharmacy Majors)
135 & above	Senior Second year (Engineering & Pharmacy Majors)

Academic Advising

It is important for students to maintain regular contact with the academic advisors assigned to them. Please check the bylaws of each Faculty on MIU website.

- Students are encouraged to take advantage of early advising during which they get to select the course/module they wish to take the following semester.(N.B: the choice between module is only available for regular students, while irregular students (probation & late) will choose by course)
- Each student is responsible for choosing and registering in courses during the on-line advising period. (For all faculties except Dentistry students).
- Students who fail to do their online advising during the set period will be listed as "Done by Advisor".
- "Done by Advisor" students are not allowed, under any circumstances, to drop/add any course/module during the Drop/Add period. They can only drop courses.

Students are urged to settle any obligations or issues regarding the following in order to be able to proceed with advising:

1. Financial issues for previous semester.

4. Completing the online Course Evaluation.
5. Admissions and registration pending issues.

- The number of required courses are as follows :
 - a. Regular students = 5-6 courses for science faculties.
 - b. Regular students = 5 courses for non-science faculties.
 - c. Placed on Probation, Continued on Probation and Extended on Probation students = 4 courses.
- It is the student's responsibility to select the appropriate number of courses/credit hours according to his/her academic status and print his/her course schedule on the first day of each semester.

- For non-science faculties : A student must declare his/her major and minor within the first four semesters, i.e. after completing 60-66 credit hours or else he/she will be prohibited from advising online.

Adding and Dropping Courses/Modules

Students are responsible for checking the MIU calendar for Adding and/or Dropping courses/modules.

Submission policy is strict and there is a deduction of grades if you submit assignments after the due date. If you are more than three days late, your work will not be accepted and you will receive a zero grade. Some assignments are cumulative so if you do not submit one draft, your final work may not be accepted.

Academic Honesty

The ELP strictly enforces the MIU policy on academic integrity. We also use a program called Turn it in to verify that the work you have submitted is, in fact, your own. Students who are found to have committed an act of academic dishonesty, or participated in academic dishonesty by giving their work to others, will receive an F in the course.

Students are expected to go to class prepared. You may be marked absent if you do not have your course handout with you.

Students are not allowed to speak Arabic in class or with their instructors in and outside class.

Handouts and books are available in the bookstore and the kiosk before the Mosque.

4. Attendance is counted from the FIRST DAY of classes. Please make sure you are a registered student and your name is on the attendance sheet.
5. A student who does not settle his/her financial obligations will be considered absent till the payment transaction takes place. Students with unsettled financial liabilities are not registered on class lists until they settle them.

- Major GPA (does not appear on the transcript): is the grade average of the courses the student completed for the major.

The numerical value of each grade of the university's four point scale is as follows:

Research Guidance Center

The Research Guidance Center is founded to set the principles of research and academic honesty among students, as well as guide them as they do their research work. It acts as a bridge between professors, students, and research resources, and a kind of guarantee that research done is not copied, plagiarized or written by someone other than the student himself/herself. As such assistants of the center guide and help students write research papers using the proper format, introduce them to the correct method of using available research sources, and ensure that they do not plagiarize. This is done through a series of individual conferences between research center assistants and students.

At each meeting, a different aspect of the research process is discussed, and the student's progress is monitored and evaluated. Through this valuable system, MIU students are ensured a genuine opportunity for developing research skills, which have practical uses throughout both their academic and professional life.

Student Summer Training Program (SSTP)

MIU organizes SSTP for students who passed their interviews. Renowned companies are contacted on annual basis to provide summer training opportunities to students. Upon completion, companies submit evaluation reports to the university on the student's performance during their training session. Such focused professional exposure enables the students to fully appreciate the academic learning they go through in the university. It also gives them an opportunity to be recruited for employment by those companies once they graduate.

Career planning Workshops are a series of workshops and seminars conducted by professionals in the field of human resources.

The goal of the workshops is to help prepare students for the employment fair held yearly, to teach them the various organizational plans for CVs, and to guide them with writing their own CVs and application letters.

- You will gain experience and skill in whatever area the club or group is concerned with. You will also learn valuable experiences concerning leadership, organization and responsibility.

How to be an active member?

You have to be:

Energetic, by attending most of the meetings and participating in most of the club activities.

Promising, by letting your superiors feel that you are a hard worker. Do not promise that you will do tasks that are beyond your capabilities.

Punctual, as this is something you have to apply to your life in general. Learn to manage time.
